

May 12, 2007

God Is With Us

(I was praying, at the end of the day, when I heard a voice that said, "You are not alone.")

Luis: My God, I'm afraid.

God: (Comforting me) Remember that you must never be afraid, because I am always watching over you.

God: (To His Arcangels) Go with him.

Saint Michael Archangel: And if he attacks you?

God: What can he do to Me? Am I not God?

(His Archangels appeared in my bedroom)

Archangels: (To the good man) Don't be afraid, we are angels and we come from God.

Good man: I know.

Archangels: Can you be a father to him?

Good man: He doesn't have a father?

Archangels: Yes, but he can't defend him like you can.

God's voice: You don't have to do it if you don't want to. I will find somebody else who will take care of him. But if you accept, I will bless you and your family forever.

Good man: Yes, I do want to.

Archangels: But not yet.

Good man: How will I know when the time arrives?

Archangels: We will tell you.

Good man: What is he doing?

Archangels: He is sending God's Light to somebody.

Good man: Why is he doing that?

Archangels: Because he loves him very much and wants to protect him.

Good man: And what is he singing?

Archangels: It's a Japanese prayer. He will show you later.

Archangels: But now you have to go, because he doesn't want you to be here.

Good man: (He left very happy and comforted) Ok.

Mandy: (As a child) Michael, you look like me!

Saint Michael Archangel: (I hugged him and fell asleep in his arms) Now you are one of us.