

July 10, 2014

Illegal Immigration?

Luis Angel López

*I will bless Mexico.
- Heavenly Father*

Once I was asked if I felt ashamed of being called Mexican... What really would embarrass me would be to be ashamed of my own roots and renounce my blood. One chooses his/her family and I am lucky of having been born in Mexico and to be heir to one of the richest cultures in the world. Mexico and its hidden wisdom... Mexico is the country that the Virgin chose to spill her blessings over the whole world, from that little hill where she wanted us to build her Home. She never felt ashamed of her children. On the contrary, she loved them so much that she wanted to have brown skin to be like them and protect them against discrimination. Why would I be embarrassed of my Holy Mother? Shame on the proud people that feel superior to everybody else and step on their rights! They despise their brothers and sisters for being different and many times they try to destroy what they cannot understand.

The United States treats as illegal immigrants the rightful owners of this land. In the "Land of the Free," some it imprisons in reservations where they die of hunger and a broken heart, and others it murders in the desert when they try to get back home, looking for a better life. But even the 32 president of the United States recognized that all Americans, except for Native Americans, are immigrants. "All of our people all over the country - except the pure blooded Indians - are immigrants or descendants of immigrants, including even those who came over here on the Mayflower." (President Franklin Roosevelt)

The infamy that the United States committed against Mexico can be illustrated with this parable. A thief covets your property. At night, he gets into your home to steal; he murders your children and forces you to give him your home. Then, as a joke, he opens your safe box and from your treasure he compensates you by giving you a cent, so that he may legitimize his crime and silence his conscience. Time goes by and your poor children, who have always been despised and oppressed, want to return home. But they are mistreated and murdered in the desert. "And they took him and killed him and threw him out of the vineyard." (Mark 12:8) But, what will happen when the Owner of the home returns? Will they also try to kill Him like they did with His children? No, He will do justice because only He is Just. "I will punish the world for its evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; I will put an end to the pomp of the arrogant, and lay low the pompous pride of the ruthless." (Isaiah 13:11)

Why are you surprised if the world imitates you and brother fights against brother. Iraq only followed your example when it attacked a weaker and defenseless country to seize its riches. Why do you punish them if you do not even repent for your sins? "I'll never apologize for the United States. Ever. I don't care what the facts are." (President George H. W. Bush) Instead of repenting, you become proud and glorify your own crimes.

The crimes that you have committed against my people are much greater and terrible. Hitler adapted the idea of the American Indian reservations to build his death camps for the Jews.

Hitler's concept of concentration camps as well as the practicality of genocide owed much, so he claimed, to his studies of English and United States history. He admired the camps for Boer prisoners in South Africa and for the Indians in the wild west; and often praised to his inner circle the efficiency of America's extermination – by starvation and uneven combat – of the red savages who could not be tamed by captivity. (John Toland)

Similarly, the plan to exterminate another human race, destroy its culture and seize its lands does not come from the Nazis either, but rather from your own evil.

The term "Final Solution" was not coined by the Nazis. It was Indian Affairs Superintendent, Duncan Campbell Scott, Canada's Adolph Eichmann, who in April 1910 plotted out the planned murder to take care of the "Indian problem." In the 1930's he brought German doctors over here to do medical experiments on our children. According to the study the majority of the lives of these children was extinguished. (Kahentinetha Horn)

So much evil, so much cruelty and so much suffering... but you only harden your hearts and continue defying the Lord. "We must never apologize for the United States of America." (President George H. W. Bush)

Perhaps your evil Manifest Destiny was to murder and commit atrocities against your brothers! Our Mother Earth was left soaked in blood in that terrible Native American Holocaust, where more than 100 million innocents lost their lives. Women, children, and old people... you did not discriminate. You are guilty of genocide. "If ever we are constrained to lift the hatchet against any tribe, we will never lay it down till that tribe is exterminated, or driven beyond the Mississippi... in war, they will kill some of us; we shall destroy them all." (President Thomas Jefferson) She still moans and cries the absence of her children. "They once grew as naturally as the wild sunflowers, they belong just as the buffalo belonged...." (Luther Standing Bear) I love you very much and it horrifies me to see how you mistreat my people. Do you still think that the United States is "the best, the fairest, the most decent nation on the face of the earth?" (President George H. W. Bush) Woe to you Babylon! "The glory of kingdoms, the splendor and pomp of the Chaldeans, will be like Sodom and Gomorrah when God overthrew them." (Isaiah 13:19) Let the Lord's glory shine everywhere in the world in the Day of Judgment so that men may recognize and tremble before His greatness.

I am tired of your pride and injustice. Everywhere I have found evil and corruption. My heart suffers painfully for the poor and the oppressed. Instead of repenting, men harden their hearts and defy the Lord. I cannot bear it anymore... "Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place, at the wrath of the Lord of hosts in the day of his fierce anger." (Isaiah 13:13) In this world where evil and corruption reign, only the small and innocent touch the heart of God. "I do not use my sword of Justice against the world because I love you." (God) But, in the "Home of the Brave," even the most innocent are murdered in the womb of their mothers...