

September 8, 2014

Unite your Hearts in God our Lord

I am a servant of the Almighty God, Su God, King of the Universe, Lord and Giver of Life. My soul glorifies and worships her Lord forever, for so many blessings, for his infinite mercy. Blessed and praised be God forever. All honor and glory are yours. Blessed are the souls who love and trust You, because they will not be disappointed. You do not forget your little ones and their oppressors You do not leave unpunished.

Do not lie to your brothers and sisters. Do not cause them to stumble. I've never told you to offend me and call me an "asshole." That comes from your heart. It is something that you learned from the devil, after you attacked me in the house of my Father, when I used to go to care for the sick. Why do you do the things that displease the Lord so much? Do you not have fear of God? You do not even respect His house... If I send you God's light, it is because you asked me. You did not let me serve my Lord in His house, but I begged Him to let me watch over all my little brothers and sisters, and he took pity on my misery and allowed me to do that. God loves all His children, but He doesn't force anybody to love Him. Yes, it is my ardent wish for everyone to be like angels and live happily. But that depends on you. Will you reject God's light to get lost and die in the darkness? You have free will to choose good or evil.

I do not send you the light of our Lord Jesus Christ to win your forgiveness either, for I have never sinned against you. And the sins that I have committed, God has already forgiven. But as I told you before, if you have anything against me, enter the eternal divine fire and accuse me before my Father; let Him weigh our souls in the balance. He has already defended me from the evil people who tried to kill me. Your sins are much greater and you have not repented for all your evil. Do not despise, then, the grace and mercy of God. You have already offended Him too much. He has heard your pleas and has taken pity on your suffering. That is why He sent me to you. Do not confuse my love and compassion. I came to suffer for you so you could be happy.

If you had a little bit of faith, everything that you asked God in prayer, He would give to you. "If you had faith like a grain of mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you." (Lk 17:6) Have you, perhaps, already forgotten when you used to make fun of me and my shield against evil? You even make fun of me because I pray to God! So instead of making fun of me, ask God to also give you great faith. Pray to God for yourselves and for your brothers and sisters. Unite your hearts in prayer so that your pleas may reach heaven and be pleasing to God our Lord.