You Judge Me Without Knowing Me

Luis Angel López

“Truly I say to you, no prophet is welcome in his hometown.” (Lc 4:24)

A long time ago I realized, with great sadness, that some of you judge me in your hearts, in your thoughts, without daring to speak one word to me. However, you laugh and make fun of me behind my back, like cowards do. But I have always forgiven you and have never said anything to you out of love and respect. But know well that I am a servant of our Lord, Su God Most High, God of our fathers, Creator and King of the universe. And everything that the Lord has deigned to give me in His infinite mercy, without even deserving it, I have given to you so that you may be happy, without ever asking you for anything in return. Am I not the one who has always prayed and begged God for all of you? But you cannot see the glory of God... you only know how to judge.

Do not judge, or you too will be judged. For in the same way you judge others, you will be judged, and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you. Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? How can you say to your brother, “Let me take the speck out of your eye,” when all the time there is a plank in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye. (Mt 7:1-6)

Woe to you sinners who judge others and do not even walk the path of the Lord! Instead learn to love each other as true brothers and sisters, like our Lord Jesus Christ taught us.

Therefore, as servants of God, we will not tolerate any insolence nor humiliation, especially from our loved ones.

For though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does. The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ. And we will be ready to punish every act of disobedience, once your obedience is complete. (2 Cor 10:3-6)

Therefore, cease to judge what you still do not understand; do not let that be the reason for your suffering tomorrow. Only God is Judge. He will judge us for all the good and all the bad that we have done in this life. Learn to be humble so that you may be happy and do not sin anymore.
